

Together we can change Arizona's future by improving early childhood.

Our members shape policy, and weigh-in on legislative bills impacting all children, especially in communities of color.

Whether you are joining as an individual or as an organization, AZECA helps you to directly influence program and policy solutions for early childhood by collectively working with lawmakers, practitioners, foundations, businesses, and other supporting collaboratives.

AZECA combines the expertise of more 50+ cross-sector early childhood champions to give all children in Arizona a great start in life. Let us help you succeed in your career with professional development training and position your organization with member benefits built to influence decision makers, and to educate your networks about the importance of early childhood development.
